You are about to purchase a product that is not simple and may be difficult to understand

What is this product?

Type The product is a closed ended investment company.

Objectives The product seeks to invest in a diversified portfolio of UK commercial property warehouse assets. The investments will include well-located freehold and long leasehold warehouse assets in the industrial/manufacturing, storage and distribution, trade-counter and retail warehouse sub-sectors.

Intended retail investor This product is intended for investors who are prepared to take on a relatively high level of risk of loss to their original capital in order to achieve a higher potential return. This product is intended to form part of a diversified investment portfolio.

Term This product has no maturity date.

What are the risks and what could I get in return?

Risk Indicator

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you.

We have classified this product as 5 out of 7, which is a medium-high risk class. This rates the potential losses from future performance at a medium-high level, and poor market conditions will likely impact the capacity to pay you.

This product does not include any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment.

If we are not able to pay you what is owed, you could lose your entire investment.

Investment performance information

The most relevant index is London Metric.

The Company is a closed-ended investment fund domiciled in England and Wales and is listed on the Premium segment of the Official List of the FCA and admitted to trading on the London Stock Exchange's main market for listed securities. The Company has an unlimited life and there is no maturity date for the ordinary shares. There is no recommended holding period for the ordinary shares. The return from an investment in the ordinary shares will be driven by the price at which the ordinary shares are sold compared to the original purchase price, and by any dividends paid by the Company to the investors in its ordinary shares during the holding period. The price at which an investor may dispose of ordinary shares will depend on the prevailing secondary market price, which may, or may not, reflect the prevailing net asset value per ordinary share.

What could affect my return positively?

Scenarios that could positively impact the Company's business, prospects or results include but are not limited to:

- (i) an increase in UK property rental values;
- (ii) an increase in UK property market confidence;
- (iii) good operational performance of tenants;

(iv) TPL identifying investments which offer high returns or are on financially attractive terms;

(v) the market value of the Company's shares increasing.

What could affect my return negatively?

Scenarios that could negatively affect the Company's business, prospects or results include but are not limited to:

(i) materially adverse changes in economic conditions affecting the UK property rental market, including a decrease in capital values and a weakening of rental yields;

(ii) adverse changes in contractual relationships with tenants;

(iii) the level of competition in the UK commercial real estate market;

(iv) the loss of the Company's REIT status; and

(v) an increase in costs.

What happens if G10 Capital Limited (as AIFM to Warehouse REIT plc) is unable to pay out?

The Company's shares are listed on premium segment of the main market of the London Stock Exchange. Should the Company be liquidated, the amount you receive for your holding will be based on the value of assets available for distribution after all other liabilities have been paid. Shareholders in this Company do not have the right to make a claim to the Financial Services Compensation Scheme in the event that the Company is unable to pay out.

What are the costs?

The Reduction in Yield (RIY) shows what impact the total costs you pay will have on the investment return you might get. The total costs take into account one-off, ongoing and incidental costs.

The amounts shown here are the cumulative costs of the product itself, for three different holding periods.

They include potential early exit penalties. The figures assume you invest 10 000 None. The figures are estimates and may change in the future.

Costs over time

The person selling you or advising you about this product may charge you other costs. If so, this person will provide you with information about these costs, and show you the impact that all costs will have on your investment over time.

The following costs are not included in the entry and exit fee calculation: broker commission, entry and exit charges paid to the fund manager, platform fees, mark ups, stamp duty, transaction tax and foreign exchange costs.

Investment (GBP) 10 000
Scenarios	If you cash in after 1 Year	If you cash in after 3 Years	If you cash in after 5 Years
Total costs	120	360	600
Impact on return (RIY) per year	1.20%	1.20%	1.20%

Composition of costs

The table below shows the impact each year of the different types of costs on the investment return you might get at the end of the recommended holding period and the meaning of the different cost categories.

This table shows the impact on return per year
